

ARCADIA GUNSMITH

READY FOR BUSINESS IN OLD BANK BUILDING
GUNS, AMMUNITION, SEWING MACHINES, NEEDLES, OIL, ETC.

LOCAL AFFAIRS

Race River Lodge No. 66, F. & A. M. meets every night on or before the full moon in each month. W. S. DAVENPORT, W. M.
J. E. CARLTON, Secretary.

Sheet music T. W. Lawton.
Ice cream at A. B. Coker's.
R. A. Mills left today for a trip on his business.

J. J. Heard and family have returned from the coast.

Dr. C. H. Smith and Sophie May are in Tampa this week.

Mrs. Best, of Punta Gorda, is visiting Arcadia this week.

Ladies' Home Journal Fashion books are at The Boston Store.

Take your girl to the best ice cream parlor in Arcadia. Lanier's.

Miss Sara Sweet has so far recovered to be able to be out driving.

A lot of good second hand show cases for sale cheap at Gore & Scott's.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Carlton and children left Monday for Asheville, N. C. for a few weeks.

The tony place to get your ice cream and cool drinks is at Lanier's. Everything nice and cosy.

The Ladies' Home Journal patterns are now be had at the Boston Store. Price 10 and 15 cents.

S. J. Simmons left this week for a short stay at Hot Springs, Arkansas for the benefit of his health.

The showers still continue, but we have had no more comfortable summer years than the present.

The Arcadia Base Ball boys played at Punta Gorda Tuesday and got beaten. Better luck next time, boys.

The W. E. Hendry cottage looks very smart in its new dress of paint. S. N. Seward is the artist, who did it.

Mrs. S. J. Simmons and sons left this week for Mont Eagle Penn., where they will visit relatives for a few weeks.

Mrs. Leon Conklin left for Kissimmee Tuesday. She will join Mr. Conklin there and they will move to Arkansas.

Miss Olney Williams has returned from visit to Punta Gorda bringing her and Miss Nellie Brown home with her.

The Arcadia Hardware Co., is beginning to feel at home in their handsome quarters in the Parker brick block.

Mrs. Wm. McClenithan and Mas. J. Hollingsworth left Tuesday for New York. They expect to be gone a month.

Do you want the best pattern in the market? Then get the Ladies' Home Journal pattern, for sale at The Boston Store.

Lanier's is the place for ice cream, cool drinks, candies, fruits and cigars. Everything of the best, and service most satisfactory.

E. Pooser, jr. and family left this week for Orangeburg, S. C. where they reside. Mr. Pooser having a railroad position.

Rev. and Mrs. Branning and Miss Ida Branning arrived from Jacksonville on Wednesday night and will visit Alf Branning for a few weeks.

W. F. Britt is erecting two more cottages in the east part of Arcadia. Mr. Britt is levelheaded and sees the advantage of having cottages to rent.

The first piano that ever went to the region east of Arcadia was bought by D. R. Towne, of T. W. Lawton. and delivered by Mr. Lawton last week.

We are sorry to learn that Mrs. R. E. Hadden is still so ill that it was found necessary to send to Bartow for Dr. Haddon, this week. The doctor tells her it will be necessary to submit to another surgical operation.

Levi McCullers has leased the store in the Carlton Block formerly occupied by Perry Brown, and is moving his stationery store into it. Miss Pauline Smith is in charge. This is one of the best locations for business in Arcadia.

"They Build the soil!"
Do
DeSoto Brand Fertilizers.
They DO NOT wear it out.
Therefore each season you DO NOT Have to use more
to get the same results.
THOS. GASKINS & SON,
Arcadia, Fla.

A PRINT-SHOP

That does big things. That's ours. We print big posters, small cards, 200 page books, leaflets, all kinds of business stationery, blanks, etc. We have the presses, machinery, type, material and workmen to do it quickly, economically, well. A trial will convince you that ours is THE printing office.

THE CHAMPION, ARCADIA
"Artistically Neat Printing"

ROYAL TAILORING PAY LESS DRESS BETTER PERRY C. BROWN

Mrs. W. H. Seward has returned from the east coast.

Its a business proposition. Subscribe for THE CHAMPION.

Get your cool drinks at Lanier's in the new Parker brick.

Bring your cow hides to W. F. Espenlaub. He pays cash for hides.

Mattresses delivered at your station by W. J. Odom, Fort Myers, Fla.

I. D. L. Butter, the best in the land at Espenlaub's always on hand.

Send to W. J. Odom for moss and palmetto mattresses. Fort Myers.

Mr. Marony, of the Nocatee mill, attended the K. of P. Tuesday night.

Several Hundred NURSERY TREES very cheap. See F. S. Gore.

Arcadia Gunsmith, Old Bank Building, Guns, Sewing Machines, Needles, Ammunition.

The Ladies' Home Journal Fashion books now out, can be had free at The Boston Store.

Lanier's in the Parker new brick, with his cool drinks, fresh fruits, nuts, confections and cigars.

A. D. Jernigan has returned from Gainesville where he has been visiting with the home folks for about a month.

Friederitce, the jeweler, at new stand, is ready for business. Call and see his fine stock of jewelry etc., on the spot formerly occupied by M. L. Bryan.

Mothers advise us that by the aid of the guide chart furnished with each Ladies' Home Journal Pattern, they train their daughters to do their own sewing.

R. I. Barnett, of Sutherland, was in Arcadia a couple of days last week visiting his brother, Dr. D. G. Barnett. He is representing the Southern College, at Sutherland.

WANTED: To exchange a 30 horse power boiler for anything I can use. I have no use for the boiler. A good boiler but needs some repairs. Alf Branning, Arcadia.

Don't forget we're it when it comes to job printing. When in need of anything in this line give us a call and get some of the "Artistically Neat" kind.

Geo. Blount and son Willie are in Arcadia this week. Mr. Blount has accepted a position with L. L. Morgan firm and will be found at the shop ready for business. Mr. Blount is a firstclass workman and Mr. Morgan is fortunate to secure his services.

If you want to know the meaning of the RED and GREEN lights, ask a railway official; he will probably tell you, that they mean, Look out! there is more coming; But if you want to know what is coming, "Ask the man" At the ARCADIA DRUG STORE.

J. E. Roush is now associated with E. M. Barnett in the wagon and blacksmith shop of the latter gentleman. Mr. Roush is one of the most skillful workmen that Arcadia has ever had and people will make no mistake who take orders to their shop.

Perry C. Brown this week moved his Royal Tailor business and gents furnishings to his Bridge Store, where Mr. Hawpton can have the superintendence while Mr. Brown is away, for we understand that he will do more traveling hereafter in the interest of the Royal Tailors.

Wood to burn. Good wood Stove wood any kind in any quantity when you want it at Brannings Wood Yard, Arcadia, Florida.

Pirating Foley's Honey and Tar.

Foley & Co., Chicago, originated Honey and Tar as a throat and lung remedy, and on account of the great merit and popularity of Foley's Honey and Tar many imitations are offered for the genuine. Ask for Foley's Honey and Tar and refuse any substitute offered as no other preparation will give the same satisfaction. It is mildly laxative. It contains no opiates and is safest for children and delicate persons. Sold by Ed Greene.

Bowling Green Items.

(Tampa Tribune Correspondence.)

One of the most pleasant events of the season was the occasion of a party given Friday evening by Miss Dottie Vaughn, in honor of

FOR MORE BRIDGE STORE

GO TO THE

Staple and Fancy Groceries and Grain

We do not SELL STYLE

Honest Goods, Honest Prices

The Bridge Store

J. L. Hampton, Manager,

Arcadia, Florida.

her friend, Miss Annie Peck, of Charlotte Harbor. Games and music afforded entertainment for the evening, with pineapple sherbet and cake for refreshments.

* Miss Iris Perkins, of North Carolina, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Giles.

Mrs. M. R. Gill and daughter, Ruth, are visiting friends at Richland this week. Mrs. Gill will also visit her son at Archer before returning.

Hon. Cyrus Jones returned Friday, after a three weeks visit out of the State.

The International Phosphate Company at Jane Jay, two miles north of here, had the misfortune to have a collapse of its dry bins. It is understood about 200 carloads of phosphate were stored ready for shipment. The weight becoming too great resulted in the accident. Fortunately it occurred early on Sunday morning and no one was hurt.

Mrs. Blackburn has returned from a visit to points in Georgia.

Prof. Brown and family are comfortably located in their new home, having arrived here from Blichton two weeks ago.

A letter from A. M. Chester reports himself and family enjoying life visiting Friends in Florida and Southern Georgia.

Mrs. Tax Keen was taken from this place to the insane asylum Friday in care of Deputy Sheriff Graddy.

T. J. Minor left Monday for Washington City and will also spend six weeks in West Virginia.

The pastor, Rev. D. Lee Switzer, is spending a few weeks in Lee County recuperating. All sincerely trust he may be much benefitted by his outing.

Jones Bros. had the misfortune to lose their delivery horse last week. The animal was trotting along Main Street and fell dead in harness without any warning and had shown no symptoms of being sick.

Miss Rose Griffith entertained a party of young folks this week.

The "Young America" of the town was set wild last week, upon the appearance on the street of a Shetland pony and cart, which J. T. Croom has given to his two little boys.

L. P. Seward is making extensive improvements on his store property and will also erect a modern dwelling at once.

The dwelling of M. C. Jones is nearing completion and is one of the handsomest in South Florida.

Miss Lowther is entertaining this week at the country home of her brother, D. H. Lowther.

Considerable excitement was created on the streets Friday over the kidnapping of a boy who had been working for Capt. Tom Albritton for his food and clothes. It seems the boy was stolen away by an older brother. It was a mixed up affair and much threat of horse whipping was done, but the timely arrival of a Deputy Sheriff put on a "quietous."

W. R. Minor & Co. will erect a new bank building of artificial stone to accommodate their rapidly increasing business. This is one of the best evidences of Bowling Green's prosperity.

A shooting affair occurred here last night, in which Dr. M. R. Gill and J. T. Croom were the participants.

Petition for Final Discharge.

U. S. DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF FLORIDA
In Re PHILLIP D. SAULS, Bankrupt.
On this 28th day of July, A. D. 1906, on reading the foregoing petition for Final Discharge, it is ordered by the Court that a hearing be had upon the same on the 15th day of August, A. D. 1906, before said Court, at Jacksonville, in said district, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, and that notice thereof be published in THE CHAMPION a newspaper printed in said district, and that all known creditors and other persons in interest may appear at the said time and place and show cause, if any they have, why the prayer of the said petitioner should not be granted.
And it is further ordered by the Court, that the Clerk shall send by mail to all known creditors notice of said petition and this order addressed to them at their places of residence as stated. Witness the Honorable James W. Locke, Judge of the said Court, and the seal thereof at Jacksonville, in said district, on the 28 day of July, A. D. 1906.
JAMES W. LOCKE, Judge.
A true copy.
Attest: E. O. LOCKE, Clerk.